

ADVERTISEMENT

WANTED

COMMODITY OFFICER/COMMODITY ANALYST

UPASI (United Planters' Association of Southern India), the apex organization of all plantation crops of South India headquartered at Coonoor, The Nilgiris, Tamil Nadu requires outstanding and committed personnel for the post of Commodity Officer/Commodity Analyst.

The incumbents should be a Post Graduate in Management/Statistics/Mathematics/Economics with good analytical ability, communication & writing skills, and exposure to computers for statistical analysis. Must be familiar with Twitter and other social media platforms.

The Commodity Officer/Commodity Analyst will handle the commodity matters of the Association which include amongst others, preparing statistical data of plantation commodities, analyse various aspects of plantation commodities both domestic and international, and analyse economic and trade policies of the Government of India.

Preference will be given to those having relevant experience in handling economic policies of Government.

Salary and perks commensurate with qualification and experience. Apart from other allowances, rent-free furnished accommodation within the campus will be provided.

Interested candidates in the age group of around 35 years may send their resume with complete details and photograph by email to asc@upasi.org